To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Reference Letter

The Forzani Group Ltd. has engaged the services of Chris Saunders for our warehousing requirements for over a decade and we continue to be exceptionally pleased with his service and performance.

Our ongoing relationship with Chris is due to his professionalism and in-depth industrial market knowledge. Chris' ethical standards reach above and beyond the industry standard. He operates with the utmost care and attention to detail as if he were an internal member of our organization.

Chris' involvement in our various warehouse real estate requirements' over the years, have been extremely beneficial to our company. It has continuously resulted in a very competitive deal structure both in terms of financially and non-tangible aspects. Additionally, on an ongoing basis he provides exceptional value to our long term strategic planning.

We recommend Chris and his team, to companies requiring sophisticated, strategic, real estate services with a high value placed on client service, and look forward to our continued relationship with Chris and his team.

Sincerely,

Mr. Keith Lambert
Sr. Vice-President, Supply Chain / Merchandise Management
